YOUR CITY COMPANION

Description

Interphone Urban is for city use. Dynamic and with colourful details, it is compatible with the majority of helmets available on the market. With Interphone Urban you can receive calls on your home-work commute and confidently reach any destination by following the directions from your Bluetooth®-connected GPS.

But if you like travelling outside the city with your partner, Interphone Urban is also perfect because of the easy driver-passenger communication that's essential for sharing the excitement of a journey. Thanks to its record-breaking autonomy, travelling will never be the same again.

Fitted with FM radio, music and GPS, Interphone Urban is not only easy to use but also complete with functions and perfect in any weather conditions. Available in black with white keys and details.
